HHLA's results burdened by difficult market environment in the first nine months of 2023

Market environment

- Continuing war in Ukraine, geopolitical tensions, sticky inflation and rising interest rates still dampening purchasing patterns of consumers and industry and led to reduced trade volumes
- Container dwell times in the ports normalized

Major events & achievements

- MSC Group announces submission of voluntary public takeover offer for HHLA A class shares
- Metrans expands its HHLA Pure network in Europe and can thus offer customers additional routes certified as climate neutral
- Successful ship integration test for shore-side power plant at CTT

Financial performance

- Container throughput down significantly; container transport decreased moderately
- Revenue and EBIT impacted by drop in volumes and decline in storage fees
- Asset additions in line with planning to support successful implementation of efficiency programme

Port Logistics subgroup

1 – 9 | 2023

Throughput
4,455 k TEU
– 8.5 %

Transport
1,222 k TEU
– 3.4 %

Revenue

– 5.6 pp

Operating cash flow
€ 156.0 m
– 25.1 %

Revenue & EBIT burdened by drop in volumes and decline of storage fees

Container throughput picked up in 3Q23, but development significantly below prior-year level

Container throughput in thousand TEU

Revenue in € million

OpEx in € million

EBIT and EBIT margin in € million

- Overall container throughput down by 8.5 %
 - Hamburg volumes declined by 6.9 % mainly due to volume decrease in the Far East shipping region
 - Feeder ratio declined by 2.1 pp to 18.4 % due to lower Swedish and Polish traffic as well as sanctions-related absence of Russian volumes
 - Internationals down by 36.0 %, driven by closure of container terminal in Odessa (Ukraine)
- Total revenue declined due to lower volumes and reduced average storage fees, average revenue per TEU down by 10.6 %
- OpEx decrease of 4.6 % mainly due to
 - lower personnel expenses due to drop in volumes and CTO closure
 - release of other liabilities for ship delays
 - partly strong increases in energy costs and expenses for external maintenance services
 - increased operational costs for HHLA PLT Italy had an opposing effect
- EBIT accordingly down to € 27.3 m

Economic slowdown led to moderate decline in rail and road transport

Operational performance burdened by lower transport volumes whilst rise in energy costs could be offset

Intermodal

Container transport in thousand TEU

Revenue in € million

- Transport volumes declined by 3.4 %
 - Rail transport fell by 1.6 % to 1,037 k TEU; all major routes were affected by the decline, particularly Polish traffic
 - Road transport down 12.4 % to 185 k TEU
- Revenue increased by 8.0 % since prices could be adjusted to increased energy costs
- EBIT decreased moderately against the background of lower transport volumes

OpEx in € million

EBIT and EBIT margin in € million

EBIT driven by strong development of leasing and automation activities

Newly consolidated company for the intermodal sector supports segment development

Revenue
in € million

EBIT
in € million

- The increase in revenue from consolidated companies was mainly driven by a leasing company for the intermodal sector, which was not included in the same period of the previous year
- EBIT improved significantly year-on-year; leasing activities for the intermodal sector and process automation contributed to the positive development; previous year was burdened by an impairment of around € 4 m for activities related to the development of new growth areas
- At-equity earnings fell strongly due to a significant decrease in bulk cargo handling

At-equity earnings
in € million

Asset additions in line with planning to support implementation of efficiency programme

Catch-up capex of 2022 led to higher capital spending overall

Constraints of the guidance

This forecast is subject to a high degree of uncertainty due to ongoing economic developments. This applies to the development of the geopolitical situation and its effects on inflation and economic sanctions. No impairment need was assumed for the container terminal in Ukraine (CTO). HHLA also assumes that revenue from storage fees in the Container segment will fall significantly from the start of the year.
